WEDNESDAY EVENING APRIL 6.

EEEECRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

ad at the Post Office at New York as second WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1267 BROADWAY-Streen Slat and 32d sts., New York. MADINON AVE. MODELYN—309 WARHINGTON ST. HARLEM—

A GAIN OF 77,699

WORLDS PRINTED EVERY DAY OF MARCH.

ade every day of March, 1891 and 1802, 1891 1891.

rch 1..... 247,040* 847,280 2..... 298,950 413,540 $..... 295,630 387,950 371,700 6 800,420 5..... 802,040 6..... 803,210 262,700 7..... 804,260 374.110 351,880 8..... 245,800* 375,600 9..... 294,950 10..... 801,230 885,040 * 11 802,710 380,210 , 12..... 297,100 389,990 272,820 18..... 298,020 14..... 808,780 382,910 15..... 249,850 384,520 16..... 805,870 382,320 477,080 17..... 405,740 378,400 18 809,600 19..... 805,500 382,560 805,810 2661882 21.... 802,960 875,803 23..... 238,360 877,585

28..... 803,630 24..... 805,140 877,725 25..... 807,090 379,912 382,541 26..... 903,110 27..... 297,790 267,280 28..... 303,770 414,433 29..... 287,990 383,141 379.415 800,670 382,343 81.... 299,193

9,181,160 W'hly & Sami 508,890 nd total.. 9,690,050 12,098,348 Morning edition only.

11.448.618

649,730

312,570

Average number of WORLDS printed per day for March,

Average per day for March,

MET GAIN PER DAY OF 77,699.

into correspondence concerning unavailable

inted Press News

Well, Rhode Island is voting to-day. Anarchy is said to have succeeded in-Surnan as the terror of Europe. But in-There is a bill at Albany authorizing proners to investigate fires. An autopsy on a conflagration would be a novel thing its way. The man who discovers a system of ing Europe.

There are plenty of broad, uptown at of the coming New York.

ations to a National Nominating bey are so made automatic, but not truly

The precept, "Never take the horse- at the cost of the honor and good faith of from the door," suffered consider- the nation ble injury in East St. Louis yesterday, hea lightning struck a piece of equine cotgoer nailed over a doorway and mocked a man speechless.

no bill signed by Gov. FLOWER, allow gives the mothers as well as the fathers ng to say as to who shall control echools where their children are

In pensing the McManus bill to perath to chosen friends outside at having their letters inspected by Earlum authorities the Assembly od step yesterday. This measure al a blow at one most pernicious of "removing" persons who beostacles to other people's selfish only the streets, which are the poorest of open question." playgrounds.

THE ELLIS ISLAND BUILDINGS. Secretary Forren while in the city visited Ellis Island with Col. Weber, and it monopolists? You did well, Governor, is said gave the emigrant buildings there in vetoing the bill, and now it is to be 'a very thorough examination." He probably satisfied himself that the charges prevent the coal monopoly from carrying of extravagance and corruption in their out the purposes of its illegal combinaconstruction are not without good foun. tion. dation. But it is unfortunate if he did not do more than this.

He ought not to have failed to notice that the buildings are a cruel, miserable that the buildings are a cruel, miserable said in its disfavor. Mrs. Baker, a widow death-trap, and that at any moment a living near Allegheny, Pa., has demonstrated the said in its disfavor. Mrs. Baker, a widow living near Allegheny, Pa., has demonstrated the said in its disfavor. calamity may arise terrible enough to spread a feeling of horror throughout the civilized world. If a fire should break out in the buildings while crowded with hundreds of poor immigrants, men, wohundreds of poor immigrants, men, women and children, the Georgia pine of men and children, the Georgia pine of men and children, the Georgia pine of which they are built would speedily conterm of the Washington St., Tarralconvent of the St. Course of the St., Tarralvert the structure into a furiously blazing avert a probably terrible disaster. Long sent in by contributors who are anxious to bloom and timid ivys that do not creep an escape. The unfortunate inmates would have the choice between burning and drowning.

If such a disaster should occur, the Government would be held accountable. It is a crime to allow the use of such a firmsy, hazardous structure as a packing place for thousands of human beings. especially when it is remembered that among a crowd of imm grants there is always extreme danger of fire.

THE SWEET POROBISTER AT SHERRY'S. Scrosis is seldom if ever sensational, but she has an original way of taking up queer things to talk about, and when she does talk she furnishes more elegant and febrine philosophy.

rosis scooped the sum of human knowl- dealing with the murderer. edge into her capacious sewing basket and discussed it with that self-confidence fluence of science, history, fiction and many more such features. poetry on literature, and while it does anybody else to take a whack at it.

History had its champion who poked enthusiastic sister, who declared that it business, and so far well done. embraced the other branches, and cousequently exerted a quadrifold influence. Public interests demand the prompt and was that much ahead of all compe i tors. Fiction was pushed to the front by a popular actress, who, following the County. example of playwrights whose works she had interpreted and who give titles to their plays that do not fit the stories told therein, spoke about everything but the suitiect she was supposed to debate apon. Poetry had a sweet-phrased patroness, who said poets were not practical and fluencing literature the ethereal creatures fluencing literature the ethereal creatures not there with both feet. This is all there with both feet. This is all there was to the Sorosis symposium.

It strikes us this all-important question is still bundled in Cimmerian gloom, not withstanding the well-spring of lalligage gery that sparkled at Sherre's Monday afternoon. Still it is not Sorosis's fault. She did her best. She might talk her jaw off and never settle this ever-crupting and exciting question. She deserves credit for knocking a large-sized and translu-bay, now that she is to have a 100,000 canbed first responsible for the return or safe-lengths of any rejected manuscripts or pictures. She did her best. She might talk her jaw to comic opera costuming. No exceptions exciting question. She deserves credit by sade to this rule with report to sither for knocking a large-sized and translu- bay, now that she is to have a 100,000 canher well. Then she don't need any managlivers or inclosures. No- will the editor enter cent hole in it, and handing it down to dis-power torch instead of the 54,000 one it posterity in a condition which leaves it has had all along. quite at the mercy of a l future debaters. Alderman Flynn is persistent. He hasn't To the Editor. It is currous though that the savant-rival- yet given up the idea of having a downtown The Evening World Prints Asso- ling Sorosister, when she swept the horizon street named after Harry Howard, the veteran think the best way to do is to let her wear notice a leastiful mitle cook-book peeping over the palisades. Is it possible that that in her greed for knowledge, the sweet Sorosister has forgotten the appetite of her husband for a nice batch of tea biscuit. There is more in a nice potato salad than in all the palaver that pervades these Scrok's now-wows at Surgany's.

THE CHINESE FXCLUSION BILL. It has been said that if the Geary Chinese Exclusion bill, passed in the House. should receive the approval of the Senate man who discovers a system of should receive and be signed by the President, the Chiis regarded as conferring a social distinction superior even to that of securing a place on the grateful acknowledgments of trem. nese Government, resenting our disregard of treaty obligations, will sever all trade relations with the United States. Congressman GEARY, of California, renues in which tree-planting could be author of the bill, discredits this rumor ried on to the lasting beauty and bene- because, he says, we buy from the Chinese $20,000,000 worth of goods yearly and sell them only from $2,000,000 to $8,000,000 worth. ation should not be tied down by Mr. Grant may be right. But that does ctions for one or another cand date. not make any the more honorable our violation of treaty obligations. The Chinaman is not a desirable immigrant,

but we ought not to try to get rid of him

GCV. ABBETT'S COAL DEAL VETO. Gov. Aspert has disapproved the bill known as the Reading Deal bill. On the principle that it is not courteous to look Chicago's Heavy Suburban Travel. a gift horse in the mouth, it might be well women to vote for School Commis, to accept the Governor's decision and mers, is both constitutional and proper. say nothing about the excuses he makes for his action. But these detract from the merit of the veto. For instance, the Governor found nothme in the bill, he says, which would assist any combination to control the necessaries of life. A combination of all the railroads carrying coal across the in the house for? tate might place it within the power of those corporations to control the price of coal, but he could discover nothing in the act that would injure the public.

Gov. Appert tries hard to defend the Legislature when he says it was influenced in favor of the bill by the belief, first, that the new combination would create a Aldermen propose that a part of competition with other combinations and kins Park B onkiyn, beset assigns a result advantageously to the public, and, best use that can be made of the public State might decrease its cost to the conparks is to throw them open as much as sumer. "But," adds the Governor cossible to the games and rompings of the naively, "whether the combination or

Oh, no, Governor, it is not an open question at all. Did you, did any one, ever know of a combination made for the purpose of benefiting the people and not the hoped that the law will be invoked to

The red skirt has often been subjected to unkind criticism as an article of woman's apparel. Let nothing more be strated that it can be made as distinctly useful as its critics have had it questionsbly ornamental. Finding a tunnel on the Pittsburg and Western road caved in, the plucky widow took off her red shirt, in humanity's cause!

Famous "Cap" HATFIELD, the Virginia bandit leader, is dead, shot over a gaming table by one of his own band, in his own house. It is believed the murderer was one of the "Cap's" brothers. There had been no arrests at last reports, Perhaps there will be none. The Hatpoetic retribution in getting itself exterminated at the hands of its own mem

After a honeymoon of six months a young couple in West Virginia quarrelled luxurious thoughts en suite than a book at last one night. Next morning the husof familiar quotations or a transverse sec- band asked the wife to kiss and make up. tion of Martin Fangunan Tuppen's anti- She refused, and he shot her dead. Such murder is the outcome of a fool's wrath. At her last tongue-wagging soirce So- The process of law should be speedy in

There was no particular demonstration in her own ability to get all there was in yesterday over the completion of the it out of it that always characterizes a Washington Arch, at the Fifth avenue To the Editor; woman, whether she is looking a problem en rance to Washington Equare. But a in differential calculus in the face or ex-ploring the merits of a new-fangled fas-quickly finished. The Arch is a beautiful Unless be be a gentleman he will have little tening for corsets. She debated the in- one. The future New York should have success in managing a wife, whether she be venience of whoever leads in prayer is the Board Schools." Mrs. Besant successfully seizes the pistol and fires at the villain. Curnot seem that the sisterhood settled the An International Convention, as proquestion of the supremacy of either of posed, putting Anarchists on the same these branches, she made such a dent in footing as pirates, would probably be it that future ages will readily recognize quite effective in subduing those reckthe trade mark blown into the bottle and less, conscienceless plotters against lives understand that Sorosis has toyed with it and governments. They own no counto an extent which renders it useless for try. Why should any country own them?

Last night the State Senate passed the fun in an airy, persiflagino's way at Congress Apportionment bill, amended to science. Science was backed up by an most certain criticisms. This is real love one another before you marry, then she or intention he suits in a corner and retuses

A paragrapher in a morning paper finds fault with a reporter for making Gabe Case lessee of the Central Park Casino; and this same critic, in the same column, rechristens Tell her your plans and the amount of you. col. James as Henry, when anybody but a income. Advise with her in all matters, part of this boyish enthusiast is that he were poorly paid, but when it came to in- chump knows that he is Edward C.

of literature with her Juno-like orb , didn't areman. He now wants Bayard street re- the pants. Give her a new dress when she urged at Albany. Prot. C. F. Chandler, Dr. E. J. Janeway and Dr. stephen Smith, formerly of the Health Board, are lending their influence in favor of the measure, which the Health Commissioners are pushing.

The record of speed in the mixing of a cocktail has been reduced to fifteen seconds. An untown artist, famous in the Tenderloin Precinct, now holds the championship medal.

Ward McAllister's list.

A Retired Gunsmith. [From the Chicago Times.] Emperor William has not said an impudent word for a week. He probably saw that he ould not hope to compete with Messra. Drayton and Borrowe. Mending Matters Worse. (From the St. Paul Globe.)

Supt. Porter is vociferous in his demand for a permanent Census Bureau; but, for heaven's sake, put it in the hands of some good Western man. A Problem in Finance

[From the South Chester News.]
If you save a cent each day from now until the Fourth of July you can buy twenty tients. beers and three pretzels

[From the Chicago Fines.]
There are nearly one million freight cars on the railroads of this country, and people who live along the take front firmly believe that the Illinois Central owns the majority of Getting Up Courage. (From the Cluthler and Furnisher.)
Singerty—Helio! what have you got that on Strawber-It's my first sik hat and I am practising to wear it outdoors.

Some women save their time " money. "strength. The wisest woman saves all She uses Pearline.

little ones. Without the parks they have the consumer would get the benefit is an In the Home Circle, Which They A Fourth Avenue Resort for Dis-Brighten and Beautify. triot Telegraph Boys.

Under Consideration.

Securing Domestic Harmony.

the plucky widow took off her red shirt, agement. Nearly all are good, and the matron along the track waving it aloft, and jority will appear in this column in time. Instead of merchandise the shiw-window stopped a passenger train just in those to This statement is made in answer to inquiries. a day or two after its receipt does not argue half of the glass door keep out the vulgar that it has gone into the waste basket. Hun- gaze, and across the upper panes is this indreds of letters are ahead of it, and it must scription, walt its turn. Conditions. THE EVENING WORLD will give a gold double eagle to the writer who shows best " How to the drollery of which attracts the attention MANAGE A WIFE." The plan must be con- of thousands of passers-by, who otherwise tained in two Lundred words, written on one would not notice the place. field gang has long been a terror to the side of the paper, have the writer's name EVENING WORLD, P. O. Box 2.354.

The House is Woman's Kingdom.

Manage a wife! It can't be done;
Manage means to control.
There's not a woman unier the sun
That, in her immost soul,
Would not resist real management,
Yet yield to kindinese "way;
Kindness is an accomplishment
Not met with ev'ry day.
And if you'll try to practise it,
With strange results you'll neet;
Contentment at your board will sit
And pleasures grow more sweet.
The house a woman's kingdom is—
Don't meddle there at al.;
Just tell her what your income is,
And love her—that is al.

G. B. B.

De a Gentleman, Always,

A man should always be a gentleman and good or bad. There is no call on management where good breeding is on both sides.
If the wife is not that what she might be the success in managing her will depend entirely on the broad, generally, sagacious and philisophical turn of mind that a thorough gentleman may be more or less fortunarly endowed with. The only hope for a man interior in gentlemanly qualities is to learn to manage himself and he will be crowned with success. A honelessly whele

Be Sure You Love Her.

Always treat her the same. Be sure you will need no managing. If a man loves his Public interests demand the prompt times, not to be kissing and hugging her one minute and then scoiding her the next, because none of us are persect. Don't use protate language is her presence. Be unseffish in all timings. Don't make a slave of your wife. Do all in your power to make her happy. Put her on an equal with yourself and don't think yourself better than your wife.

Be Chums.

Treat a wife as well as you do yourself Take her into your confidences. Prefer her to all others. Be true and frank with her in covers and leaves are worn with handling.

Let Her Wear the Pants.

How to manage a wife did you say? I wants it and take her to the theatre when she asks you, if business permits. Don't cross A Health Department pension fund is being her in anything. Try and remain in the her in anything. Try and remain in the house at hight when you come from work. From the house in the morning without kissing her good-by, not too many times or she may expect the same number all the time. I know some wives are hard to manage, but give them all lots of money, love and dresses and if they are not cranks they will want nothing more. If you are quiet and she is cross, give her a yard of her own measure.

K. T. 473, Brooklyn.

Worth Knowing.

That ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS are the highest result of medical sci- York. method have never been equalled.

That they are the original and genuine porous plasters, upon whose avenue. reputation imitators trade.

That Allcock's Porous Plasters never fail to perform their remedial was sound asleep the other night when his work quickly and effectually.

That this fact is attested by thousands of voluntary and unimpeachable testimonials from grateful pa-

That for Rheumatism, Weak Back, Sciatica, Lung Trouble, Kidney Disease, Dyspepsia, Malaria and all local an effort to pacity his visitor. pains they are invaluable. That when you buy Allcock's Porous PLASTERS you absolutely obtain the best plasters made. Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation.

COCK'S POROUS PLASTERS and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

playground for children. That is right, second, that the decreased expense of the park Board should so order. The bringing coal into the markets of the best use that can be made of the public State with the room.

Are Now Made in Colors.

the Spring Bonnets.

Spring bonnets are the filmstest and most of the most exquisite perfection. Few rib-

Mrs. Homan and the Rev. Radiand T. Plummer, both of the London School Board, are children are among the poorest in London.

The coming woman will have an improved dish-washer in her hand and the half-dollars exhibit. He was persuaded, however, to make an attempt to have them represented near Tokio, where the ordinary relations be tween men and women are reversed. There cated. They are taught drawing, painting, embroidery, the decoration of pottery and also pormal schools for girls, in which sewtaught. The women of Japan have also made prog esa in the domain of medicine, and four or five have graduated from the medi-

That Torrible Thirst.

[From Life.]

Dashaway - The plumbing in my house broke down the other day and we didn't get Prom the Clothier and Purnisher.

Briggs-What has become of your new silk

Griggs -I gave it to the porter of a Pullman car.

iiriggs—What did you do that for 7 Griggs—It was cheaper to give it to him than to have him brush it.

Needed Pinesse.

Crawford—He seems to be a confirmed cynic. I didn't hear him say a good word about anybody.

Crabshaw-Perhaps you didn't draw his out about himself.

POSITIVE CURE
LOST or VALLING VITALITY, General RVOUNDERHITTY, weakpare of Body not, leffects of Errors or Reseases in On nog, How to Rainty and Styrengthen Will DEV Absolutely unissing Hone Vel LTT-Benetite in a day, Man, swelfy irre there and Foreign Consulting Man, swelfy irre
there and Foreign Consulting and price them.
editor Book, Explanation and pract me ing is taught as an obligatory branch and the making of ar inclai flowers.

peen abandoned.

hat, old man?

and blessings of her sex awaiting her.

Fair.

of our protective tariff.

the east side cannot solve.

for the dear old grandmothers.

The Question of Their Management Reading Room and Library Placed at Their Disposal.

Many Views of the Best Methods for Efforts of Kindly Women to Improve the Lads' Welfare.

There is a little shop in Fourth avenue, just a decision in the contest. "Should Wives above Twenty-ourth street, where a leeble Receive Salaries?" It will be published effort is being made by a few well-meaning ladies to improve the m rais of those nimble witted juveniles who wear the "stripes," run "calls" and regard as lawful gain every nickle ful of letters received from persons who have—over an i above the tariff that can be nipped, contributed their experiences in wife-man-nabbed, prigged, plucked, cribbed or filelied may the red skirt wave, then, when it is learn the fate of their communications. The tach a year.

in humanity's cause! ract that a letter has not been printed within Sash curtains gathered across the lower

Reading-Room for Messenger Boys,

The frequency with which the ubiquitous law and the community. It would meet and address (not necessarily for publication), Blue Jacket is seen reading a haif-sealed note or telegram "en a run" is proof enough of his literary taste, to say nothing of the pockets loaded with penny dreadfuls.

There are "splits" in the work of the day and night force, and it was to benefit the former that the Reading-Room was started. The idea is certainly praiseworthy, but the filmy creations yet sees of tulle lace and a method lacks "the breadth of common-sense" few most delicate flowers, like white or pale that Mr. Stead, in his speech on Newcastle pink azaleas, or anemones, or wild roses, all Church, called "the essence of Christianity." assembly-room are covered with Scripture long loop standing forward in an uncomquotations done in gold letters which at- promising way. Small jewelled pins often tract the eye at once, and which, while beau- are the only ornaments on lace bonnets. gleat, and the villains are discomilled. tiful enough in themselves, mean nothing They are all very small, however, but costly whatever to these impulsive, untrained like jeweis. in their natures as so many well-bred heiters. The apostie's creed and the ten commandments are conspicuously displayed above the lasking for contributions "to supply dinners with a ristol in his band, and his wife rushes book cases, and a little lecturn for the con- to the children attending St. Paul's Road only imposing article of furniture about the pleaded last year on behalf of this work. The

But the reading-room is always warm and tidy, the boys are more than kindly treated, and whenever they find themselves "broke," not be bought in New York for less than 70 with an hour on their hands, they look into the R. R. M. B.

The sweet little woman in charge always has some pleasant greeting for each boy the say that "she makes a fellow feel funny" when she merely inquires about his health, but when he gets accustomed to this sympa-

Some very odd characteristics are shown by the books on the shelf, marked "Sunday reading," is an illustrated history of the Old six pounds to buy them. Testament which has an unspeakable charm for a small, close-mouthed chap of a somewhat unsocial disposition, who will pore over the book by the hour.

The battle pieces are his special delight. and he knows the sword-thrust and the method of attack of every time-honored butcher in the biblical wars. The funny diagonal linea. never reads a line of the text, and yet the Another well-thumbed book is a popular seen at a disadvantage. history of the Reveillon, and the identity o well known enerals who have been or are residents of the city is the frequent cause of bloody side-walk battles. The "Blue Jackets of 1812" is almost blackened with admiration; Charles Dickens is first on the list of novelists and a St. Nicholas of any age is a literary attraction. That the Sunday-school literature is always nd where it belongs, fresh and not a surprise to any one who is familiar with this roguish but withal good-natured element of society. A very sad phase of life among the messen. ger boys is their extreme poverty. Most of Tegima shook his head doubtfully when the Lessalle distinguished himself as usual. Ed- ever sing in the West?" them are in rags and patches when they appear in the reading-room, the rules of the orinion that the women of Japan were not dius and Mile. Giulia Ravogli was Queen Company obliging them to remove the com- sufficiently advanced to act on the Commis- Gertrude. Montariol was Lacrtes; Vivian, fortable uniforms, which they have paid for out of their slender earnings, when not on by the Government as a part of the national Arrayed in ordinary clothes their best patrons would scarcely recognize them. And There is one province in Northern Japan, still, if they were not so very insufficient, these ragged garments would be admired, for they hespeak honesty, generosity and personal the people are devoted to sitk cuture, and the sacrifices nobly borne.

when the boys have had a particularly keep house and watch the children. Tegima hard day's work they sit round the stove and talk, and some of the confidences they exthan Dr. Parkhurst's famous sermon. Few men not in the service of the municipal government know as much as these growing boys do about the geography of crime in New ence and skill, and in ingredients and superintendent personally interests herself achools where the art of silk culture is Recognizing their moral danger the fair in getting the younger boys assigned to the day force, and that is the very best work accomplished by the little mission in Fourth NELL NELSON.

cal schools. Native schools of medicine have Had Lost a Chicken. Chief Schmitt, of the Police Department, door bell rang. The thief went to the door himself, says the Cleveland World. any water for twenty-four hours. Cleverton—How did you manage? Dashaway—I got alonz all right until the next moraing, and then I needed it badly. " Well, what is it?' he asked.

somebody, "and I want you to come out and Where is it ?" asked the Chief. "On Rh des avenue. It's only five or six miles and I am anxious to catch the thief tonight."

"One of chickens is missing," whispered

"I'll be over to-morrow," said the chief, in No, you must come now," was the reply. Finally the chief got his visitor inside, invited him to join in a social glass of burgundy, and sent him away happy. "Oh, it's fun being at the head of the police

About What She Was. Mr. Nicefello—Teli me what mu ic love, and I'll tell you what you are. Sweet Girl-I love " Trovatore," and "Comrades," and "Faust," and "Lohengrin," and "Anule Rooney," and "Dinoral," and "Maggie Murphy" and "Sonnambula," and "Alda," and most everything. Now, what ments)—You are a dear little agel

J. Marra & Co.'s Muscaret for invalide to muon crited. Silva pte. 85. 50 ; idea. qte. 30, 411 Grand at 1

THE GOLD TH LADDER."

There is a good, old-time howler at the New Park Theatre in the shape of "The Golden Ladder," by Wilson Barrett and George R. Home Gowns for Elderly Ladies sims, two gentlemen who are stanch believers in the hero who is wronged, the heroine who clings to him and the villain who works the mischief. These familiar types are to be found in all their glory in this latest play, and they behave themselves Flimsy Creations in Tuite Lace for in a strictly tradit ona; manner, 4 know I am all wrong on the melogramatic subject. for I always sympachize with the villain, and hate the hero. No matter if the viliain torges Gowns for elderly ladies for home are now checks (as he generally does), forecid mortgages (a pastime which he adores), plans made of rich dark reds and other warm colors instead of the depressing black so long the murder the is forced to do this for the sake of fashionable wear, and they are becoming and his reputation), or robs a bank, I like him. pleasant to look at. The pretty changeable I like him tecause he persecutes the hero. stiks make up into very suitable gowns also The hero siways gives me a pain. I love to tee him persecuted.

The Rev. Frank Thornhill is the here of "The Golden Ladder." He is a very into think he is going to develop into a low comedian. Alast for your error. Heroism. like a rash, breaks out on him by degrees, and at the end of Act I. there he is on the centre of the stage, declaiming in an exquisite way and offering his little $50,000 to redeem the latner of the girl he loves, don'tcherknow t she clings to him with a sort of patent, I'll-proscente-any-infringement sort of cling, and says. "Whither thou goest i will go: thy people," In my opinion Lilian shows her bad taste in making this decision, but, poor girl, she is getting decidedly weakened and saltered nerves, telling of alsopiess. ion, but, poor girl, she is getting decidedly mature, and I supprese she is anxious to marry and settle down. It is only for this reason that I can account for her willingness to follow the Rev. in: Thornbill.

Then they go turough thick and thin; the villain appears with all his delightful paraphernalia and the real melodrama begins. They all meet in Chili, and the villain gets Rao, a Chillan servant, to mix some poisoned Rao, a Chilian servant, to mix some loisoned what I had to do, and was bothered very much. I had inward spasms, was very hysterical, would ery here. For some reason or other Rao, who all day for nothing. I would drop anything out of must use at least 10 cents' worth of grease my hand, and my speech was affected. I took Dr. paint on his nose, does not succeed. The Rev. fat Thornhill goes back to New York and confronts the villains, who have stolen Lillian's pa's securities. He gloats over them in a very unfeeling way. I long for them to jump up and smite him on the eye, but, of course, I am For instance, the walls in the reading and bons are seen on bonnets, unless perhaps one aware that Wilson Barrett would not allow such a proceeding in a well-regulated melodrama. The Rev. fat Thornhill continues to In the next act they lure him to the banks of the Hudson and try to kill him. My spirits go up at the prospect of his death. But heroes in melodrama have nine lives. The Hev. fat one does not die. He springs up on in a pretty little gray cloth dress. She In the next act wife is in prison and husband goes to see her. His hair has turned a A pair of good Lisle thread stockings canbeautiful distingue white, and he looks quite fetching. It is very pathetic when he gets to centa. That is one of the great advantages Auburn and visits poor Lillian. He telis her all about their little girl, which gives her an opportunity to say "Me child! Me child!" and I have discovered that melodramas in keep better goods, though others There is a little shop in First avenue where the latest styles in trimmed hats are which the heroine doesn't cry "Me child!" sold at 98 cents. The styles are pretty, the are always dead failures. Lillian is dreadbows are smart, and no garden could possibly fully tortured. Many a girl would look upon value we've been giving for the past grow gayer flowers than bloom for these Auburn as a pleasant escape from the Rev. Easter hats. How the modiste manages to lat one, but Lillian doesn't. At the end of the sell her wares at such figures is a puzzle that act she escapes in somebody else's clothes, demand that now our sales are many amid deafening applause. Edwin Thorne was times the volume of a few years age. the fat hero. Mr. Thorne does a great deal of Some of the spring bonnets do not weigh acting with a hat and a sort of dancing-class over an ounce, but it takes between three and bow. He is always bowing. He is not without ability, but he is not my idea of a melodrama's hero. Miss Grace Huntington, who we show nearly a hundred styles looked old enough to know better, was very Cashmere-like broadcloth seems to have gone completely out of fashion. The silky kittenish at first. She improved later on. goods, if used at all, is in making children's The only members of the cast who really did coats and pretty dresses for dancing-school. well were Miss Lizzie Scanlan, who played prices much below your anticipations. There is almost no sale for mourning wear, the small part of a prison matron, and Miss preference being shown for serges and Lizzie May Ulmer.

Why doesn't somebody write a melodrams in which the villain lives happily ever after-Women do not understand how beauty and wards, and the hero, heroine and children die bright colors affect a man and a child, else of some dreadful, lingering disease? It would they would never permit themselves to be be quite a retreshing change. ALAN DALE.

"HAMLET."

Ambroise Thomas's " Hamlet " was sung at the Metropolitan Opera-House last night, with Mile. Van Zandt as the unhappy She had a long interview with & dramatic power. In this scene she did ad- been invited to sing, and after several regima, the Imperial Commissioner, and the mirab derable ap- the Western friend spoke to the lady next to result of it was that Tegima promised to in- plause. Lassalle was the melancholy Dane- him. tercede for the women when he returned and although this is something of a misnomer for try to have a number of the most influential the hero of Thomas's opera. Hamiet, operat- said almost with a sigh. of them recognized on the Commission, italiy, is a distinctly cheerful individual. stop, and said that their work should be shown the Ghost; Hinaidini, Marcellus; Cernusco Horatio, and Vaschetti, Polonous.

WORLDLINGS.

The extremes of temperature on the Sahari are such that while the day may be oppressively he at night it is freezing cold. It is interesting to learn that we live a distance so-called "fixed" stars. Mrs. Andrew Carnegie is one of the host of per Alphonso XIII., the baby King of Spain, has aiready had a biography of himself written for Most of our English walnuts come from Southern California, where an annual crop of 1,500,000 pounds of them is raised.

VACRANT VERSES.

A Song of Dawn. Each leaf, snother wakening, sighs,
"Sweet stater. It is day!
The last night blooming glories dies,
And worrescover a petal lice.
The East grows sarm and gray. "The birds are still as eep; and yet, Amid the su-cat throng, like dusky vapors that beget The dew, dream-singed shades have set The germs of heavenly song." —Lippincoit's Magasia

> Until the Judgment Day. How swiftly time flies by!
> How fast all things grow old,
> Except ten bifant industry
> And the star with hair of gold.
> These still press re their youth
> And the star with hair of gold.
> And the star gold the star gold

They're Out of Sight. The astronomer shouted in happiest mood:
"I've found an inhabited star!"
"Well, what if you have?" said the practiwith weak it you man.

man.

"Just tell me the good of it, sir, if you can.

"Just tell me the good of it, sir, if you can.

We can sell them nothing—they're too far away;

Nor can they us brought under civilized away—

Our cannon don't carry that far."

—indianapolis Journal,

Worse Than She Thought. Woman-Was my husband in a state o semi-intoxication when he was to here last on-Keeper-What do you mean by sem Salon-Keeper-What do you mean by semiintoxication?

Woman-Well, did he bosat of having made fitty thousand dollars on a real-estate deal?
Salon-Keeper-What do you mean by semibalon-Keeper-What do you mean by semithousand dollars on a real-estate deal?
Salon-Keeper-What do you mean by semithousand dollars on a real-estate deal?
TO SUIT YOUR CONVENIENCE.

SPHING SCHEDULE OF TERMS:

Woman (sole voce)-Drunker than I suspected. Thank you. Good morning.

been reported far and wide by the papers. But did you ever stop to think how many thousand people there are sinking in the sea of life, dragged down by disease, who are struggling with main to keep from sinking deeper and dieper, un-til overwhelmed by death? Yet around us we see lives sinking. Pale, pinched nights and days of anxiety, nervous irritability. with weak, tired, dragged-out, miserable feelings.

with weak, tired, dragged-out, miserable feelings. But help is surely at hund.

If sufferens will use Dr. Greene's Nervurs, the great nerve to tic, blood invigorator and regulator of stomach, liver and bowels, they can be surely cured. It is purely vegetable and harmless. All druggists. $1.00,

"I had very severe headaches, lasting three days."

A loss of memory; would have to stop and think Groene's Nervura, and it has been the greatest blessing to me and my husband, who before never know if he should find me alive when he returned each night. I feel so thunkful for whint Dr. Greene's Nervura has done for me

" 885 9th are , New York City." Note.—Dr. Greene, the specialist in curing all forms of nerrous and chronic diseases, 35 West 14th st., New York, can be consulted free, personally or by letter. Call, or write him about your case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining your disease, giving advice. &c . will be returned free.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

UPHOLSTERY.

Don't think because we sell so low that we do not keep the finer qualities. None ofitimes ask double price for same. The few years has caused such increase in Who can a better record show?

OF PARLOR SUITS

Prices range from $58 to $1.000. Fancy Chairs in great variety and at "BUY OF THE MAKER."

GEO. C. FLINT CO., 104. 108 AND 108 WEST 14TH ST.

ODD BITS OF CONTEMPORARY HUMOR.

Harvey Was Wise. He had been a member of the Harvard Glee Mrs. Potter l'almer is very anxious that the Ophelia. Mile. Van Zandt was somewhat Club, and after five years in the West had rewomen of Japan should be represented on the tame until she came to the mad scene, for turned to Boston with a Western friend, says Japanese Impertal Commission to the World's which she had probably been hoarding her the Detroit Free Prest. One evening he had

> "I didn't know Harvey could do that." he "Why," she asked in surprise, "didn't he

> "He may have before he struck our place: I reckon he did, but he never did there." "That was strange," she remarked. "I "I don't know." and Harvey began another song, "unless it was that we had a very active Vigilance Committee that knew its busi-His Mania for Shaking Hands. Mr. Burgess is a pompous, consequentistold gentleman, with a mania for shaking hands with distinguished people, says Life. he had shaken hands with all the crowne needs of Europe and most of the Presidents the United States, as well as the Governors of all the States and Territories. He never missed an opportunity to at the hand of any famous general or state man, author, actor or puglist whom chanc One day two triends of this centlemen wer discussing a funeral which had been held t day previous. By the way, I saw Burgess there," s "Yes," said the other. "Did he sh hands with the corpse ?" And He Laughed Hoarsely. Mrs. Flopp (entering store)-Is Mr. Pal

Clerk-No, ma'am; he has just stepped Mrs. Flopp-Will he be in after a bit? Clerk-Possibly; he has just gone hon

A Dog About. [From the Clothier and Furnisher.]
Featherstone—I hear you don't wear a dres suit when you call on Miss Plakerly now.

WE TRUST YOU.

Furniture, Carpets, Bedding, Stoves, Pictures, Clocks and Portieres

B WI L FURNISH YOUR HOMES ON EAST WERKLY OR MONTHLY PAYMENTS TO SUIT YOUR CONVENIENCE. SPRING SCHEDULE OF TERMS

Trans State. The Typic d'Hote dipner for The. to J. & S. BAUMANN The Control of Control

NO NEED TO WAIT Until You Get Money Enough.

J. & S. BAUMANN